promotions and building up marketing for its films. For Who Framed Roger Rabbit 2, Disney has partnerships with McDonald's, IHOP, Chuck E. Cheese's, Walmart, T-Mobile, State Farm Insurance, Discover card, Amazon, xfinity, General Mills (cereals and Go-Gurt), Sun-Maid (raisins), Airheads (candy), Kid Cuisine (foods), Blue Bunny (ice cream), Target, Dave & Buster's, Disney World, Chiquita, Amtrak, Denny's, Regal Cinemas, AMC Entertainment, Chevrolet, Kia Motors, Cold Stone Creamery, Dippin Dots, Dairy Queen, Baskin-Robbins, Oreo Cookies, Chips Ahoy!, Tic Tac, the GroupOn app, Little Caesars, Arby's, the Disney +, HBO Max and Peacock streaming services, ABC, FOX, CBS, NBC
MSNBC, CNN, American Airlines, Southwest Airlines, Southwest Airlines, Southwest Airlines, Kellogg Company, Unilever, The Hertz Coporation, The Void, Purple Mattress, Energizer Holdings, Delta Vacations, Google, M&M's, Nestlé, Krispy Kreme Doughnuts, Dunkin Donuts, and Jelly Belly for its candy products, PepsiCo., whose promotion also includes PepsiCo. brands Tropicana, Quaker, Aquafina and Frito-Lay, Got Milk?, Samsung, and Wonderful Pistachios. The film's characters are used in products and advertising campaigns across various media. The studio is also pursuing social media efforts to promote the film. Disney partnered with Hilton Hotels and Resorts, InterContinental Hotels Group, Caesars Entertainment, and Marriott International, with advertising of the film. Variety reported that the partnership was the first-ever between a film studio and an international chains of full service hotels and it will concluded with Los Angeles over Memorial Day weekend in late May 2021. Merchandise is also being produced for the film: Hasbro (toys), Activision, Gameloft and Oculus from Facebook (video games), Hallmark (cards), and Jem Sportswear (apparel). Publishers: Scholastic and Little, Brown and Company are releasing books tied to the film. For the home video release of the movie, Disney called "", with two expressions. Who Framed Roger Rabbit 2 also promoted Walt Disney World, Disneyland, the Warner Bros. Studio Tour, Universal Parks and Resorts, Six Flags, LEGOLAND Theme Parks and Cedar Fair Entertainment Company. Videogame [edit | edit source] Warner Bros. included more than 500 playable characters. It is available on XBOX, PS4, PS5, and Nintendo Switch. The game is produced by Disney, Warner Bros. Games, Activision, Vicarious Visions, Beenox, Behaviour Interactive, TT Games, Asobo Studio, Sumo Digital, Heavy Iron Studios, Ninja Theory, Gearbox Software, Frontier Developments, FUN Labs, Blind Squirrel Games, Torus Games, Panic! Button, Toys for Bob, Next Level Games, and Electronic Arts. Despite following the same plot of the movie, there are many bonus story elements that relate to the previous films: the main locations from Who Framed Roger Rabbit and many more. The loading screen is the same as The LEGO Movie 2 Videogame. It also includes bonus levels, including one where Star Butterfly and Tom Lucitor dance like in Club Snubbed. Also, Sleeping Beauty Castle and the 2020 Warner Bros. Iogo makes cameos in the game, and two Warner Bros. Games logos are shown in the game's opening logos. An online MMORPG component, titled Characterville, was created. Players can explore Characterville. Game Update[edit | edit source] All of the characters of The LEGO Movie 3 will be in this update, along with the vehicles from the LEGO Sets.
